It's easy to make a gift that's beneficial for you and your family—and The Children's Institute of Pittsburgh.

As your needs and giving ability change, so should your estate plans. If you elect to update your will or the beneficiaries of your retirement plan, life insurance policy, or donor advised fund, remember that by including The Children's Institute, you'll be creating a meaningful legacy while securing our financial future, all without affecting your current assets or cash flow.

Your legacy gift for The Children's Institute will help every child with special needs reach their fullest potential.

The Mary Irwin Laughlin Society recognizes friends who have included The Children's Institute in their estate plans. If you have included The Children's Institute in your plans, please let us know so that we can personally thank you for your deep-rooted commitment to our amazing kids, and be sure that your gift is used as intended.

For information about the Mary Irwin Laughlin Society or how to include The Children's Institute in your will, contact:
